

Northpointe Workshop:

The Role of Classification in Jail Management

Sioux City, Iowa

Hosted by the Woodbury County Sheriff's Office

August 8, 2018

The role that classification has in the overall management of the jail continues to expand with each passing year. Staff assigned to provide this vital function must understand how their decisions impact virtually every aspect of jail operations. This workshop will examine and focus on the vast array of different responsibilities that may fall onto the lap of classification staff. Beginning with Pretrial assessments and recommendations, to classification and housing, programming, and finally release and concluding with community corrections decisions. Having the tools and understanding how to efficiently and effectively navigate the process is imperative. This workshop is intended to encourage participants to return home and begin the process of reviewing their practices and deciding if changes are necessary.

WORKSHOP TOPICS:

- Pretrial – the current trends and where we are heading...
- Inmate Classification – Primary, Reclassification, and Review
- Restrictive Housing
- Mental Health
- Data – what does it all mean?

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Jail Administrators, Sheriffs, Training Personnel, Operations Staff, Security Staff, Programs Staff, Supervisory Staff, Population Managers, and Classification Staff (new and experienced).

TRAINING LOCATION:

Western Iowa Tech Community College, Security Institute Building
4647 Stone Ave., Sioux City, Iowa 51106

ABOUT NORTHPOINTE: Northpointe was founded by Dave Wells and Tim Brennan, Ph.D. over 30 years ago and was centered on a vision to become a leading research, development, and consulting firm in the country. Since its founding, working with numerous state and local jurisdictions, that vision has become a reality. We provide leading-edge technical assistance and software tools to the field to help correctional managers and decision makers. Our goal has always been, and will continue to be, to provide vital contributions and leadership support to criminal justice agencies that is cost effective and remains focused on public safety.

Register

equivant.com/workshops

Early Bird Rate:

(ends July 8th) $149

Regular Rate: $199